

Emily Carr

This project consists of multiple electric roof top units providing heating and cooling throughout the space. The installation of all ductwork is exposed to match the theme of the art school. Existing kilns and gas equipment used for a variety of artwork where also serviced and re-fired.